

Their MAJESTIES Most Gracious and Free Pardon

TO THE

Convicts in Newgate, on Friday the 20th of December, at Justice-Hall in the Old-Bayly, in the First Year of the Reign of our most Gracious Sovereign Lord and Lady King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, over England, &c. Anno 1689.

THAT so many poor wretched Creatures as those are, whose Names are underwritten, should be seduced and instigated (so far) by the Temptation of Satan, (that Common Enemy to all Mankind) is enough to make every considerate Person stand amazed, especially if they consider the Blackness of the Crimes for which they stood Attainted. What Wonder is it, that they shou'd be so far stupified, as not to hearken to the First, Second, nor Third Call of Almighty God, who hath proclaimed himself to be the Lord, the Lord God Gracious and Merciful, slow to Anger, and of great Kindness, and desireth not the Death of poor Sinners, but that they shou'd turn and live, &c.

Their Most Gracious Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY have been pleased, out of their Most Princeely Favour, to grant them their Free Pardon, in hopes thereby to induce them to lead a better Life, and to become New Creatures in Christ Jesus, &c.

The Court being Sate, these, whose Names are specified, pleaded the PARDON upon their Knees, &c.

Mary Batters	Mary Constantine	Mary Cross
Jane King	William Jenkins	Mary Amor
Elizabeth Cropley	Richard Davies	Hannah Holding
Mary Davies	John Bargeer	Elizabeth Lockyer
Ann Harris	Abigail Bargeer	Thomas Barloe
Jane Feild	Elizabeth Boyle	James Tivedell
Katherine White	Jane Read	Thomas Kelsey
John Moore	Bowld Billingley	Sarah Barrowes
Thomas Gardner	Robert Evans	Ann Dye
Barbara Woolfe	Charles Price	Elizabeth Dunston
Lawrence Wells	Ann Robertson	Thomas Robinson
Job Mddison	Thomas Leigh	Joshua Salter
Elizabeth Brown, alias Latham	Isaac Ford	John Prossley
Elizabeth Dumoss	Katherine Williams	Edward Wood.
Elizabeth Parsons	William Battin
James Cary	Edward Tomson

The Names of those that did not Plead, but Received the Benefit of the Pardon, viz.

Roger Leadman
Thomas Alcroft
John Franks
Harmon Mearman

Peter Sam
Evert Vandeventer
Lewis Marsh
Henry Balas

Ellis Skinner
Walter Preston

These are the SCOTCH Officers of the late Lord Dumbarton's Regiment.

John Johnson
John Murray
Mango Murray
Peter Robinson
Isaac Theikeld
William Murray

William Cunningham
David Arnell
William Robinson
Peter Murray
George Cheyne
Walter Anchomontey

James Paton
Alexander Innes
John Carr
Patrick Cooke.

These are the Private Sentinels of the said Regiment.

Robert Rowell
More Makarey
David Baize
William Browne
Andrew Mackdonell

John Coning
William Bayley
John Fleming
John Stanison
Thomas Drury

Humphrey Cabonne
John Lainge
Joseph Collier.

John Harman, the Dutch-man, for Killing the Child in the Cradle, about Two Sessions ago, was Ordered to Sue His Majesty's Pardon, being told by an Interpreter, that if he did not do it within a few Days, he must Expect nothing but to be Executed for the same.

George Davis, who was Acquitted by the First London Jury, the last Sessions, for Firing the House of William Whitehead in Swishin's Alley, was Ordered to be sent to Bridewell to receive the Correction of the House; and not to be Discharged, until he shall find such Sureties for his Good Behaviour, as the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of London shall Approve of.

One Baker, who Seduced Daniel Groves to Commit the Horrid Fact of Firing his Masters Houle in St. Alballow's Parish, Lumbard-street, gave in Security for his Good Behaviour, &c.

ADVERTISEMENT.

¶ It being Inserted in the last Sessions-Book, That Roger Tilley gave in Bail to Appear the next Sessions, for Speaking Seditious Words against the King and Government; it being a Mistake, These are to signifie, that the Court being satisfied of the Integrity of the Captain, (who is since made Adjutant of their Majesties Army in Ireland,) and the Maliciousness of the Prosecution, was Discharged by Open Proclamation.